

IPM Integrated Pest Management Florida

Integrated Pest Management is a tool set for landscape maintenance that uses a combination of different approaches to manage landscape pests.

Biological

Natural enemies such as lady beetles

Cultural and Physical

Proper grass mowing and fertilizer application

Chemical

Correct application of pesticides

This successful approach works to minimize environmental, economic, and health effects.

 UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA
IFAS EXTENSION

For more information about IPM:

UF/IFAS IPM Web site
ipm.ifas.ufl.edu

UF/IFAS Indian River County
Extension Service
(772) 770-5030 or
Indian@ifas.ufl.edu